

The Corporate Sufi Advantage EXECUTIVE COACHING

This is a highly personalized program, featuring one-on-one coaching. The clients are top-level leaders, including executives of established businesses, successful entrepreneurs, and independent professionals such as doctors, lawyers, financial advisors etc. The program typically runs for 6 or 12 months. The starting point is a customized needs analysis conducted by Azim and the Corporate Sufi team, and this becomes a blueprint for the program that follows.

Why Corporate Sufi?

Leaders at the C-Suite level are in many ways the ideal audience for the Business, Balance & Beyond approach. From a business point of view they will have a great track record (though a re-examination of their modus operandi can lead to surprising opportunities for change). As for Balance & Beyond, this is often a source of major inspiration and discovery.

What do our 6 and 12-month Executive Coaching Programs include?

- Crystallizing goals and defining success
- Assessing happiness and balance
- Use of proven learning techniques: the Corporate Sufi audit and 360 degree assessment
- Dedicated discussion meetings every month: face-to-face, by Skype or by phone
- Bi-weekly email goal-setting and feedback
- Assessments and evaluations: every 30 days, mid way and final
